

WOCRAWFORD'S

Friday.
DEAR JESSIE—It's the dainty little finishing touches, a fluttering ribbon, well-fitting glove, peep of a snow-white cuff, a jauntily set-in comb, and the like trifles that take a man's eye, as the winning smile and pretty little natural ways take a grip onto his heart that mere beauty can never accomplish.
The average man don't know whether your gown's velvet or calico, but if you've got on a lot of pretty feminine gim-cracks he'll pronounce you a daisy at a glance.
As we happen to know that your Jim always comes on Sunday, we have a few suggestions to offer:
Linen cape collars, 5c; cuffs, 10c; black Spanish scarfs and fichus, very fashionable, $1, to elegant affairs at $3.50. Dainty oxidized silver flower pins, the latest! 25c; Rhine-stone pins, $1; an elegant quality 4-button kid glove, with broad embroidered backs, $1. The prettiest handkerchief in town, sheer and fine linen, hemstitched, 15c; beautifully embroidered, with the new colored block borders, 25c! The tiny dotted beauty veils, 5c; Marabout, 10c; ruching remnants, all the nicest styles, 12 1-2c at remnant table in West Boulevard. New velvet ruching, pink, Nile-green and blue, 60c a yard; combination ruchings, 45c a yard. Long pocketbooks, 25c!! Sash, millinery and trimming ribbons at a third less than anywhere else in town. Come in and see if it's so.

Ask to see our handsome new wool felt hat; the latest English shape. You'll be charming in it; shades, blue, brown, green and gray—$1.

CAPITALISTS! LOOK AT THIS!
A rare chance for investment. 1 offer for sale one-half of the controlling interest in the finest stock farm in the United States. I have more than 1 can attend to. The farm consists of 7,500 acres of deeded land (not better in the State) located at Larned, Kansas, on the A. T. & S. F. R. R., only six miles from the town. It is a beautiful place, with a stream of pure water runs through the entire tract. The banks lined with beautiful trees; 5,000 acres under a good fence, divided into eight large pastures; 1,000 acres under cultivation. The buildings are all of cut stone with good single roofs, and originally cost $250,000. There are two stone barns 40x150 feet with wings 40 feet; two stone barns 50x100 feet; two stone barns 40x150 feet; one stone barn 40 feet in diameter; five stone houses 40x50 feet; finished up in modern style; 400 head of fine horses on the farm; we raised eighty colts this year. This is a chance seldom offered. I would sell the controlling interest, but prefer to hold an interest. It will bear the closest investigation. Call on or address me for a few days at La Jolla Hotel, St. Louis.

The Browns Win the Fifth Game From Detroit.

A Close and Interesting Struggle at Brooklyn This Afternoon.

Caruthers Again Too Much for the League Sluggers.

The St. Louis Boys Win by a Final Score of 5 to 2—Out of the Five Games Played for the World's Championship, Detroit Now Has Three and St. Louis Two—A Hard Fought Battle To-Day—The Contest in Full-Detailed Score by Innings.

By Telegraph to the POST-DISPATCH.
WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, N. Y.—The Champion Base Ball combination arrived at New York this morning at 10 o'clock, having suffered a slight delay at Pittsburgh yesterday. The fifth game in the big series for the championship of the world was booked for Brooklyn to-day, and the whole of New York and Brooklyn was visibly excited over the game. The prices of admission to the game here were fixed at fifty cents for unreserved seats, fifty cents additional for seats in the grand stand and $1.50 for box seats. President Byrne, of the local club, received the delegation when it arrived at the grounds with smiles and ushered them into the park to be received by the 8,000 people who were sitting in the stands waiting for the game to begin at 2 o'clock. The unreserved portion of the seats was entirely filled, and a stream of people was still filing in. The boxes were all taken and the grand stand was very comfortably filled. In fact there was no ground for complaint in point of attendance and the presence of the crowd made the managers accordingly well pleased. The day was clear, and although the wind was blowing from the southwest, it was stiff and cold, and made matters decidedly disagreeable for those who were unfortunate enough to occupy seats in the shade. An innovation was made in the umpiring method to-day. Kelly and Gaffney alternated for one while instead of the half-inning. The players came in carriages from the Grand Central Hotel, New York, and were received enthusiastically by the crowd.

KING PITCHES NO MORE.
The experiment of putting in King yesterday against Detroit's sluggers proved a failure, and he will play no more unless necessary.
BOBBY WANTS TO PITCH.
Caruthers requested President Von der Ahe last evening to pitch him in every game, but this is deemed impracticable. He may do so to-morrow at New York, and Monday at Philadelphia.
BEATIN MAY PITCH.
President Stearns says it is likely that he will pitch Beatin in one game, but it is probable he will not, as Baldwin proved so strong in yesterday's contest.
THE BATTERIES
subject to change as announced on the printed score-cards were Conway and Bennett for Detroit and Caruthers and Robinson for St. Louis.
A NEW FIELDER.
President Von der Ahe to-day signed a new outfielder who may play in the big series. His name is Holliday, and he is a young man who played last year with Lincoln in the Western League, batting second for that team. Should Holliday be played he will be put in right field when Caruthers pitches.

The battery for to-day's game was finally announced as Caruthers and Boyle, with Foutz in right field.
THE BATTING ORDER was as follows:
The Browns—Latham, 3b; Gleason, ss.; O'Neill, 1b; Comiskey, 2b; Caruthers, p.; Foutz, c.; Welch, c.f.; Robinson, 2b; Boyle, c.
Detroit—Richardson, 1b; Gannel, 3b; Rowe, ss.; Thompson, c.f.; White, 3b; Dunlap, 2b; Bennett, c.; Hanlon, c.f.; Conway, p.

After some delay, which the vast audience bore impatiently, the bell rang, play was called and the game began with St. Louis at bat and Gaffney behind it.

FIRST INNING.
For the Browns, Latham began to foul balls but Gaffney called no strikes on him. He finally gained his object and got to first on balls and stole second. Gleason was hit by a pitched ball and first was given him. Then both men stole a base together, leaving first vacant, and they both scored on O'Neill's hit to center. Comiskey forced out O'Neill at second, and a wild pitch brought the Captain to third. Caruthers hit to Gannel, who threw Conway out at home and White's assist retired Foutz.

For the Browns, Latham stepped to bat and fanned himself out amidst cheers. Robinson's assists retired Gannel and Rowe.
SECOND INNING.
For the Browns, Welch hit to White and died at first base. Hanlon's catch killed Robinson, and Boyle expired on Rowe's assist to Gannel. For Detroit, Thompson hit to Comiskey and settled his fate right there. White hit to Gleason, and life had no more chance for him after he reached first base, and Welch put the side out by gathering in Dunlap's easy fly.

THIRD INNING.
For the Browns, Latham knocked a pretty fly to Richardson, and was put out by him in a pretty catch. Gleason tried to bluff Conway by batting left-hand and was struck out for his pains. O'Neill hit to Dunlap and was safe on Gannel's error. Dunlap retired the side by catching a little pop fly from Comiskey's bat.

For Detroit, Bennett wore a white shirt so mascot his battery power, but he opened for Detroit in this inning by striking out. Hanlon followed him by retiring on a soft hit to Robinson. Gleason's error let Conway get to first, but he was forced out at second by Richardson.

FOURTH INNING.
For the Browns, Caruthers hit a liner to Dunlap, who caught it. Rowe's assist retired Foutz and Welch flew out to Rowe, ending the Browns' half of the inning.
For the Browns, Gannel hit up a high fly, which was covered by Robinson, who made a pretty running side catch. Rowe's hit was felled to first by Gleason in time, and Gleason made a heroic catch of a red hot liner hit ball from Thompson's powerful bat.

FIFTH INNING.
Latham began to coach here and was cheered by his Brooklyn friends. This rattled Conway a little and he hit Robinson with the ball. Robinson then started for second and got it, and if he had not fallen he could have gone to third on a wild throw down from Bennett. After Boyle struck out, Latham flew out to Hanlon, who ran in to capture the ball and Rowe's assist put Gleason out of the way.

For Detroit, White's high fly fell into Gleason's hands, but Dunlap hit safe to left. A wild throw brought him to third and he scored on Bennett's hit into the crowd for two bases. Bennett scored on Hanlon's hit over short tying the score. Hanlon was thrown out at second and Conway was retired at first by Gleason's assist.

SIXTH INNING.
For the Browns, O'Neill hit high to center and was put out by Hanlon. Dunlap's assist retired Comiskey. Caruthers hit safe past second, stole that base and got to third on Foutz' hit to left. Foutz got to second on the throw-in, and both men scored on Welch's two-bagger over third base. White's assist retired Robinson, but the Browns had a lead again.

For Detroit, Richardson hit right through Gleason's legs, Gannel sent a line fly to Robinson, who caught it and doubled Richardson at first. Rowe hit safe over third stole second and Thompson made a phantom hit. A passed ball advanced both a base, but the chance was spoiled by a great catch by O'Neill of White's foul fly.

SEVENTH INNING.
For the Browns, White's assist was the death of Boyle, but his error proved to be the life of Latham. Latham stole second and when he was half way Gleason hit himself with a pitched ball and got first. A wild pitch advanced the men a base, and O'Neill's out to Thompson brought home Latham. White then assisted Comiskey out and retired the side.

EIGHTH INNING.
Dunlap hit safe to center field, and was sent to second by Bennett's clean hit to the same garden. Dunlap was thrown out at third by Robinson, who dropped Hanlon's fly purposely but failed to make the double play. Richardson fouled out to Boyle, and Conway flew out to Welch.

For the Browns, Dunlap's assist retired Caruthers, White's assist retired Foutz, and Welch followed with a hit to the beam, who overthrew to first and brought Welch to second. Robinson got first on balls, but Rowe assisted Boyle out at first.

For Detroit, Gannel hit safe to center and O'Neill caught Rowe's fly. Thompson was sacrificed by the same process, and Caruthers' assist put out White.

NINTH INNING.
When Latham came to the bat in this inning he danced on the plate and was jeered while White assisted him out to Gannel. Gleason flew out to Richardson, and Dunlap's assist put out O'Neill.

For Detroit, Latham's assist retired Dunlap. Bennett struck out and Hanlon flew out to O'Neill.

PARTIAL REPORT.
A Batch of Indictments Returned by the Grand Jury—Bills Ignored.
The Grand Jury this afternoon made a partial report to Judge Normile. Indictments were returned as follows against prisoners: Alonso Devlin, alias Hamilton, throwing cars off railroad track and endangering the lives of passengers; Edward H. Ferguson, criminal assault; Henry O'Hearn, highway robbery; George Dixon, larceny from the person at night; William Crews, Mary Nicks and Dick Smith, larceny from a dwelling; Benjamin Adams, Patrick Burke, Emma Johnson, Wm. Overton, Peter Woodruff, assault to kill; Wm. Tween and Wm. Ferber, assault to great bodily harm; Eugene Delaney, Duane O'Brien, alias Lachance, and Dick Grimes, alias Tucker, burglary in the second degree and larceny; Geo. W. Booker, two cases; Henry Coughlin, Nelson C. Hamilton and James Richardson, Edna Harris, James Mitchell, alias Beckington, alias Henry Winchley, Thomas Brown, alias Thomas, alias Morgan, Van Robinson, Lewis Smith, alias Henry Jacob, Thomas Shea, John Tobin, George Williams, alias Henry Brown, Henry Zimmerman, grand larceny; James Mitchell, alias Beckington, grand larceny.

There were three bills ignored: Nick Bernhardt, attempted criminal assault; Charles Cooper, assault to kill; John Sweeney, burglary in the second degree and larceny.

Applicants for Clemency.
During the present week the applications for executive clemency at the Mayor's office have been very numerous. Mayor Francis ordered that during the carnival season no judgments of the Police Courts should be reviewed as the police would be too busy with their regular work to carefully investigate the circumstances of the arrests. As a result all the friends of the incarcerated violators of the law postponed making their appeals for clemency until this week. Several applications for the release of children from the House of Refuge were also made. In one of these Mayor Francis instructed a clerk to telephone to the superintendent and ascertain the conduct of the child at the institution. The answer came back, "Not very good."

"In what particular?" asked the clerk.
"She tried to set fire to the institution."
On this report the Mayor refused to give a release.

Not Worthy of Belief.
There were eight cases of selling lottery tickets on Judge Noonan's docket to-day. Out of the lot only one conviction was secured. Thomas Grady was convicted and one case and fined $300. Another case against him was nolle prosequi. Aaron Block was tried on four separate charges and Maurice Craven and Sam Williams on one each and they were all acquitted. The court holding that the charges were the people's testimony against them was so bad that their testimony was not worthy of belief.

Animal Mortality.
Health Commissioner Dudley is now gathering facts about the animal mortality rate of this city. He has been authorized by the Board of Health to let the contract for the removal of dead animals. The parties holding the contract at present pay the city $20 a year. Dr. Dudley is now putting himself on the annual death rate and the value of dead horses and cows. After ascertaining these facts he will be enabled to intelligently pass on the bids for the contract.

Mrs. Julia A. Carroll is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. J. Kienlen, 2704 Spring avenue. Miss Julia Street of Moberly, Mo., is also the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Kienlen.

UNDER ARREST.

Gen. Boulanger Called to Account by the Ministry.

The French War Office Scandal Assuming Startling Proportions.

Rumors That Boulanger Will Resign His Commission in the Army—Baron Kreitmayer Retracts His Charges Against M. Wilson—Denial of the Grand Duke Nicholas' Alleged French Toast—The Unemployed of London Attack the Police—Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria to Proclaim Crown Prince Rudolph Regent—The Fisheries Dispute—Foreign News.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.
PARIS, October 14.—The judgment of the court against Gen. Caffarelli involves his dismissal from his post at the Ministry of War, the removal of his name from the active list of the army, the loss of his cross of the Legion of Honor, as well as of his other decorations and medals, and the diminution, by more than one-half, of the pension of 8,000 francs which he was entitled to in consideration of his thirty-nine years' service in the army. This is, of course, independent of the criminal action which will be instituted against him by the public prosecutor.

A GAME OF HIDE AND SEEK.
General-Senator Count D'Andlau, on his side, is still hiding. The prevailing idea is that he will keep out of the way till the chambers reassemble and then attempt to carry matters with a high hand. Meanwhile half the detectives of Paris are playing a veritable game of hide and seek. Three or four policemen are stationed in the neighborhood of the Senator General's abode, while the same number are keeping an eye on the Jockey Club. People continue to be amazed and horrified by the graphic stories published of the Count D'Andlau's transactions. He is actually said to have secured the appointment of a bishop, pocketing as a reward for his pious task a matter of $2,500. Then there is a whisper that he once procured the election of a man into the almost equally sacred precincts of the Jockey Club, for a consideration of $10,000. It was four times his fee for the bishopric, a fact which, if true, will prove that the Episcopal bench is not so difficult of attainment as the club. But there is no reason for the Jockey Club to triumph if the report be correct that Gen. D'Andlau on two occasions received sums of $20,000 for the ribbon of the Legion of Honor, a price which casts the club's tariff miserably in the shade and places the bishop nowhere.

PRESIDENT GREIVELY AFFECTED.
It is evident that M. Jules Grevy has been greatly affected by the figure which his son-in-law has been cutting. The President of the Republic has hastened his return to Paris. He was expected at the Elysee last night, and it is affirmed that Prime Minister Rouvier, Gen. Ferron and M. Wilson have been asked to be at the palace on his arrival, in order that he may confer with them without a moment's delay.

BECOMING MORE SERIOUS.
The situation is becoming more and more serious. Yesterday morning an impartial and widely circulated journal boldly called on M. Wilson to court inquiry into his conduct, and said that his tarnished honor could not be satisfied with the approval of a single paper. And with one solitary letter in justification of his behavior, M. Wilson having denied the existence of the incriminating letter, in which it is claimed that he refused to sell the Cross of the Legion of Honor for less than 50,000 francs, Baron Von Kreitmayer replied that he had seen and read the letter, and that if he were brought before the examining magistrate he would bear witness to that effect. Curiously enough, he has not yet been summoned. The paper adds:
"M. Wilson might prosecute and ask us to prove our accusations. He does nothing."
What could be stronger than this language? And yet, as the journals say, M. Wilson offers his charms to pass unchallenged. Matters seem to be rapidly assuming the dimensions of a crisis at the Elysee Palace.

SENSATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS.
The Arrest of Gen. Boulanger—Baron Kreitmayer Admits He Lied.
Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.
PARIS, October 14.—Gen. Boulanger has been placed under thirty days arrest, having admitted criticizing the conduct of Minister of War Ferron, his superior officer, in the article published in the Soir. He will not be removed from the command of the Thirteenth Army Corps, for fear of once more bringing the Boulanger question on the tapis. Baron Kreitmayer has confessed the falsity of the charges he brought against M. Wilson.

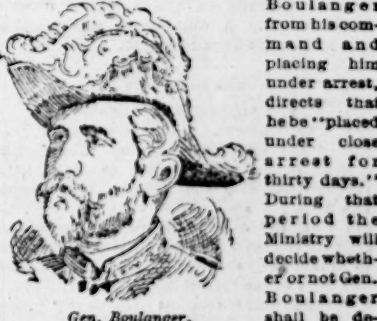

GEN. BOULANGER'S ARREST.
PARIS, October 14.—The order relieving Gen. Boulanger from his command and placing him under arrest, directs that he be placed under close arrest for thirty days.
During that period the Ministry will decide whether or not Gen. Boulanger shall be deprived of his command.

WHAT THE RADICALS WILL DO.
The Radical members of the Chamber of Deputies have decided to make Gen. Boulanger a candidate for that body if he resigns or is removed from his command. Further complications are imminent.

BOULANGER'S SUCCESSOR.
Gen. Broye will succeed Gen. Boulanger in the command of the Thirteenth Army Corps during the temporary suspension of the latter.

WILL RESIGN HIS COMMAND.
Rumors are persistently circulated to the effect that Gen. Boulanger has resigned his commission in the army.

YOUNG CHRISTIANS.

CONVENTION OF THE SOCIETIES OF CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Officers Elected at To-Day's Session—Committees Appointed—Societies Represented—The State Strength—Interesting Reports—To-Night's Closing Meeting.

To-day's session of the State Convention of Young People's Societies of Christian Endeavor began at about 9:45, after three-quarters of an hour spent in social greetings between the delegates. The proceedings were held in the lecture-room of the Second Presbyterian Church. Never before in the history of religion in this State has such a convention of young people

State has such a convention of young people gathered. They were not youths by any means, nearly all the men being over age, but their appearance of youthfulness was intensified by the absence of elderly people from the audience. Though youth is supposed to be the time of flowers and all that, there were no decorations in the room except the motto of the society, "For Christ and the Church," worked in red immortelles on a white background fringed with yellow grasses. State Superintendent Graft Venable the meeting to order and J. T. Lacey of St. Louis was chosen Secretary and J. M. Hill, Assistant Secretary. The call of societies showed the following to have representatives on the floor:

SOCIETIES REPRESENTED.
St. Louis—Second Baptist, 3; Delmar Ave.

nue Baptist, 4; Pilgrim Congregational, 7; Third Congregational, 3; Aubert Place Congregational, 4; Mt. Calvary Episcopal, 5; St. Mark's Lutheran, 5; Memorial Tabernacle, Presbyterian, 4; Carondelet Presbyterian, 6; Cote, 8; Brillante, Presbyterian, 3; Westminster Presbyterian, 1; Second Presbyterian, 7; McCausland avenue Presbyterian, 6; Lafayette Park Presbyterian, 6; North Presbyterian, 1; Filadelfia avenue

Presbyterian, 1; Cumberland Presbyterian, 2; State-Windsor, Congregational, 1; St. Charles, 1; Kansas City, Congregational, 2; Media, Congregational and Presbyterian, 3; Springfield, Episcopal, 1; Presbyterian, 1; Methodist, Episcopal, Baptist, 6; Webster Groves, Presbyterian, 3; Post-Street, 1; Hannibal, Congregational, 2; St. Joseph, Congregational, 1. Besides these local workers are notices of a secretary, Ward of Boston and J. W. Howell of Chicago. Prominent State workers include Rev. J. H. Williams of Kansas City, G. W. Foss of Springfield and J. H. H. H. H.

COMMITTEES ASSIGNED.

The following Committee on Constitution was appointed and later submitted a constitution similar to that of the local unions, which was adopted: Rev. Mr. Williams, Mr. Kendall of Windsor and Mr. Israel of St. Louis. The Nominating Committee was appointed as follows: Messrs. Cotton, Henry, Whitney, Parker and Bolse.

Reports from societies were called for and shared. Large numbers during the year.

The Committee on Credentials was then appointed, consisting of John H. Roth and Frank Tonner. The Committee on Resolutions was constituted with Mr. S. L. Biggers as Chairman.

The report of State Superintendent Graft showed that twenty-five societies have been organized in St. Louis with a membership of 2,000, and that a dozen young people's societies or ententes. With other names would change and join the Y. P. S. C. E. in a week. He touched up on the State work by saying that in Kansas City they have ten societies, Sedalia, three; St. Joe, three; Springfield, four; Hannibal, one; St. Charles, one; Webster Groves, three; Windsor, one; and many other towns were reported as being on the point of formally organizing societies. The report awakened considerable enthusiasm, which broke into slight applause, when it announced that the strength of the Y. P. S. C. E., in Missouri, was not less than 10,000, an army of young folks. A large part of the report was devoted to impressing the value of local unions on the delegates.

Then General Secretary Ward gave a very interesting address on the "National Organization," which was much like the address of last night. Then adjournment was had till 2 o'clock.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

On reassembling after dinner the first business was the election of officers, the following being chosen as reported by the nominating committee:

President, Rev. J. H. Williams, Kansas City; Vice-President, Chas. W. Foss, Springfield; Secretary, George B. Graft, St. Louis.

Treasurer, J. T. Lacey, St. Louis; Executive Committee officers, Presidents of local unions and Messrs. S. L. Biggers, Wm. S. Burns, Clarence Clayton, John M. Hill of Sedalia, A. F. Brown of St. Joseph, George D. Bennett of St. Charles.

The following programme was then carried out: Discussion, "Committee Work," opened by papers by J. W. Howell, Chicago, "Look-out," J. T. Lacey, St. Louis, "Prayer Meeting." John M. Hill, Sedalia, "Social." Address, "Personal Work in Christian Endeavor." Rev. J. H. Williams, Kansas City. Discussion, "Woman's Part in the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor," opened by papers by Miss Eleanor Mare, Second Baptist Church; Miss Jennie Williams, Kansas City; Miss George Hardy, Springfield. Our paper, "The Golden Rule." J. J. Gruchy, Second Presbyterian Church. Discussion "Membership" papers by E. E. Israel, "Active Membership," North Presbyterian Church; Geo. W. Lubke, Jr., "Associate Membership," St. Mark's; Evan, Lutheran Church; conversation, "Local Unions," paper by F. H. Haskins, Mt. Calvary Episcopal Church; question box, conducted by Geo. M. Ward, General Secretary. A social and reception to delegates in the church parlors was held between 5 and 7:30.

TO-NIGHT'S MEETING.
The convention will close to-night with the following exercises: Praise service by Selden F. Spencer; address, "The S. C. E. Inseparable From the Church," by Dr. Stimson; hymn, "Brightly Gleams Our Banner;" address, "Characteristics of the Y. P. S. C. E.," by General Secretary Ward; Christian Endeavor hymn; remarks by the foreman by Rev.

W. A. Black; farewell consecration meeting.

DROPPED BY DEFEW.

The Pointers Used by the New York Bears.

NEW YORK, October 14.—The bears in the stock market have used Chauncey Depew's interview with sharp effect in the Grangers stock, and they predict lower prices as a sure result. The publication was a surprise to the Vanderbilt representatives, and they decline to express any opinion.

on it, in the hope that Depew may have been incorrectly quoted. Henry Clews says that Depew has had so much of his time occupied in the pursuit of pleasure in the European Capitals that he is not aware that the results of the expansion of railroads which he predicts certain to come have already transpired, and the market is now recovering from them.

Mr. G. M. Howland, President of the Mis-

South State Y. C. A., returned to the city this morning after a week's absence in Michigan.
